Expanded Learning Partnership

To help tell the story of expanded learning opportunities in Oregon, we recognize 5 key categories of building quality programs that we have based our work going forward on.

Inspiring Student Dreams.

Programs spark interest so students have a greater chance to realize their full potential, attend school more often, and are more likely to graduate college or career ready.

Supporting Professional Development.

Providing Professional Development is essential to enhancing program quality and implementing relevant youth development practices through engaging expanded learning opportunities.

Building Systems & Structures.

Afterschool programs are shaped by community need and provide opportunities to help all students thrive in school and in life. Students in afterschool programs show more interest in learning, behave better, complete their homework assignments and help them build the skills employers need.

Engaging Parents & Families.

Afterschool programs help build safer, stronger, and smarter communities, keeping youth safe and helping families balance work and life.

Increasing School & Community Partnerships.

Effective programs involve community partners to support locally-driven solutions, get students ready for college or career, and strengthen relationships with local industry.
